

Submission FAQ

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Submission Deadline and Timing

Q: What is the exact submission deadline?

- A: Your project must be submitted no later than May 17, 2025, at 11:59 PM (Egypt Standard Time - GMT+3).

Specializing in Frontend or Backend Only

Q: Can I focus primarily on frontend or backend development if I have a stronger preference or skill set?

- A: Yes. While this is a full-stack competition, you can strategically prioritize your strengths. Excel in your preferred area (frontend or backend), and ensure you meet at least the minimum requirements in the other area to remain competitive.

Q: Will focusing strongly on just frontend or backend negatively impact my evaluation?

- A: Not necessarily. Judges value depth and quality highly. However, neglecting one part entirely might lower your overall evaluation. It's best to excel significantly in your preferred area while maintaining sufficient quality in the other.

Submission Process

Q: How do I submit my project?

- A: You will receive an email from SurveyMonkey within three days containing a mandatory survey link. Use this link to submit your GitHub repository URL. Submissions outside this survey will not be accepted.

Q: Can I update my GitHub repository after submitting the survey link?

- A: No, you can't update your GitHub once submitted.

Q: Will I get a confirmation after submission?

- A: Yes, you will receive an automatic confirmation after successfully submitting your survey with the GitHub repository link.

Evaluation and Scoring

Q: How will projects be evaluated?

- A: Projects will be evaluated based on:
 - Code quality and maintainability
 - Functionality and completeness
 - Creativity and innovation
 - Adherence to requirements and best practices

Post-Submission Process and Results

Q: When and how will I be informed of the competition results?

- A: All participants will be contacted by email within 2 or 3 weeks after the submission deadline. This email will detail whether you are recognized among top performers, or if you have not been selected.

Q: What if I'm one of the top two winners?

- A: Congratulations! If you're among the top two winners, you'll receive a financial prize and official recognition. Detailed instructions on prize claiming will be communicated via email.

Q: What happens if I'm among the top performers but not in the top two?

- A: Participants identified as top performers will be nominated for internship opportunities with Areeb Technology. You'll receive an email detailing the next steps for internship interviews and placements.

Q: If I don't qualify as a winner or top performer, will I still receive feedback?

- A: Yes. All participants will receive feedback.
